

HOUSING ESTATES IN V4, WHAT NEXT? [WORKSHOP / BUDAPEST]

03 06 / Sept / 2015 international workshop / Budapest

case studies:

Újpest Centre and Havana Housing Estates

venue:

Department of Urban Planning and Design, BME,
Budapest, Műegyetem rkp. 3. K293

participants:

10 + 10 students from the Faculty of Architecture:
BME Budapest and CTU Prague

teachers:

HU Hungary

Melinda Benkő PhD

/ Head of the Department of Urban Planning and Design, BME

Tamás Fenes DLA

/ Department of Urban Planning and Design, BME

Tamás Perényi DLA

/ Head of the Department of Residential Building Design, BME

CZ Czech Republic

Michal Kohout

/ Head of Department of Building Theory and a supervisor of new housing study program of CTU, cofounder of research institute Housing Quality Centre, unitarch.eu

David Tichý PhD

/ lecturer at CTU, cofounder of research institute Housing Quality Centre, unitarch.eu

Filip Tittl

/ architect, urban designer, unitarch.eu

visiting scholars:

PL Poland

Ryszard Nakonieczny

/ lecturer at the Faculty of Architecture, Silesian University of Technology (Gliwice), member of DOCOMOMO

SK Slovak Republic

Slavomira Ferencuhova PhD

/ assistant professor at the Faculty of Social Studies, Masaryk University (Brno)

HU professional Hungarian partners:

György Szesztai

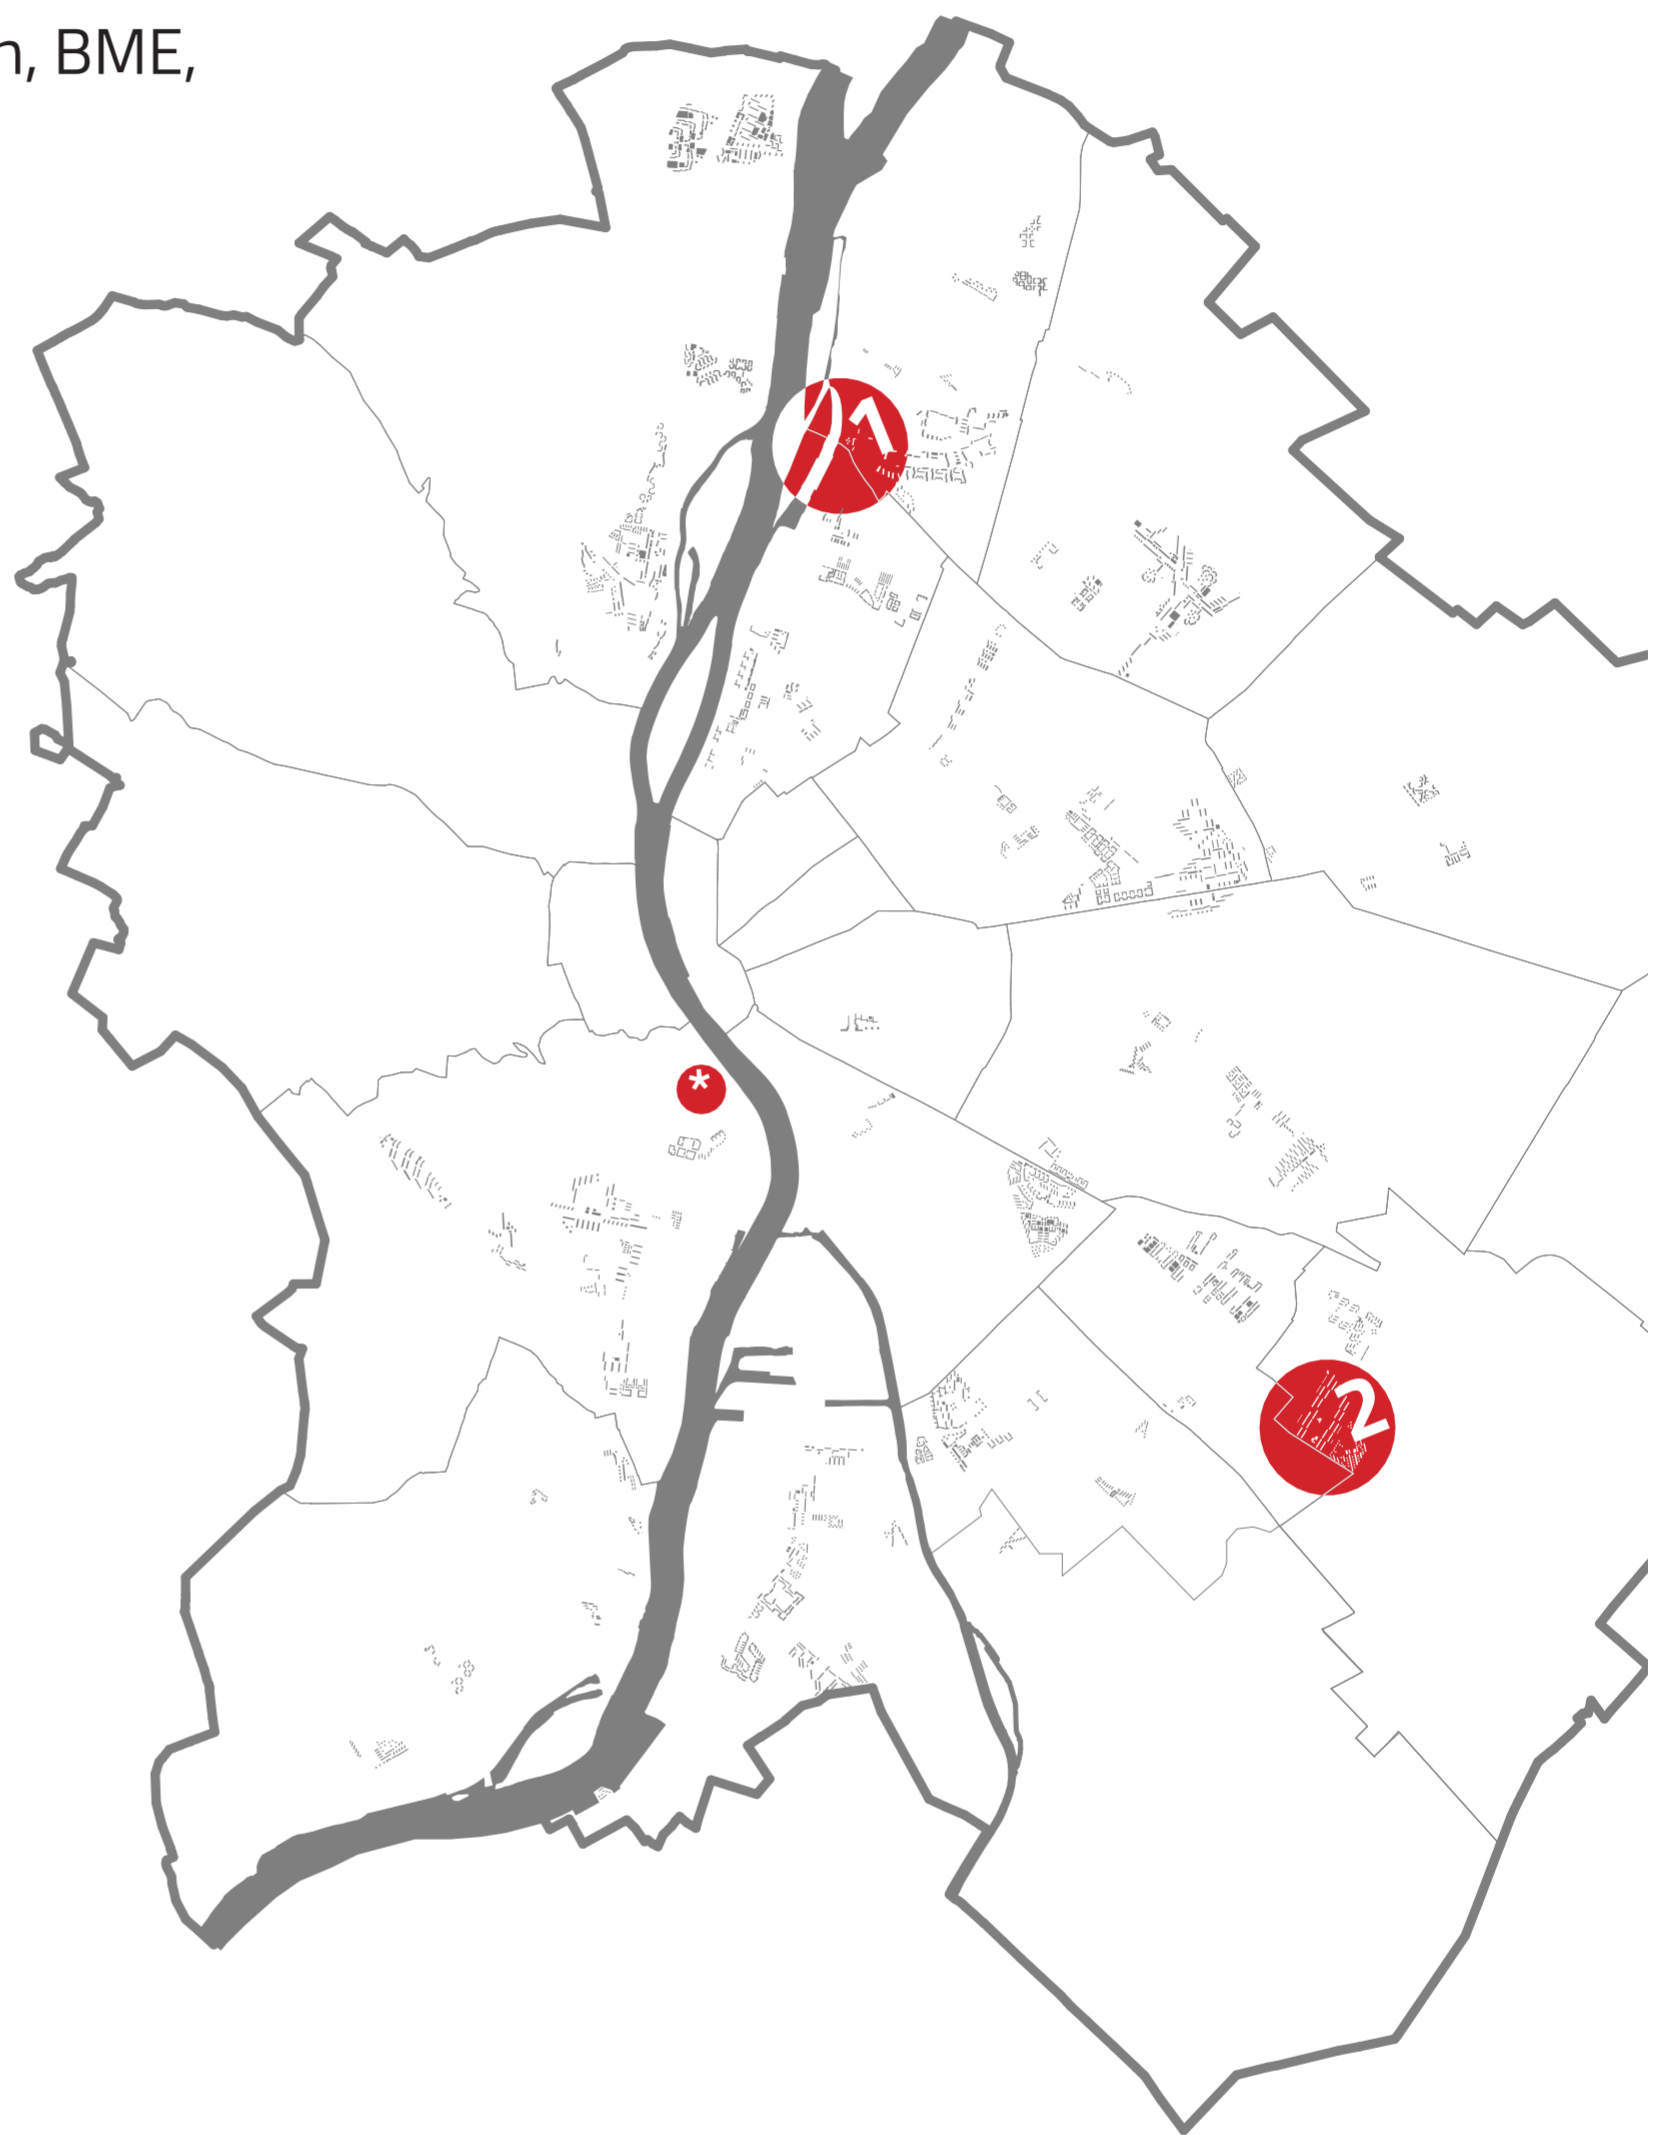

/ chief architect of the 4th district, Budapest / Újpest Centre housing estate

Miklós Mártonffy

/ chief architect of the 18th district, Budapest / Havana housing estate

Organisers:

Melinda Benkő and Tamás Fenes / urb.bme.hu

1 ÚJPEST CENTRE
1973-86

2 HAVANNA
HOUSING ESTATES
1977-83

 Workshop will take place at the Faculty of architecture BME in Budapest, Műegyetem rkp. 3. 'K' building

